Re: GPIF-I Equity Co., Ltd., et al. v. HDG Mansur Investment Services, Inc., et al.,
Case No. 13 Civ. 547 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

On behalf of Defendants in the above-captioned action, I write to respond to Plaintiffs' request for a contingent trial date in the event that on July 7, 2014 Judge Carr of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court of the Southern District of Indiana (the "Bankruptcy Court") lifts the preliminary injunction barring Plaintiffs from prosecuting their claims against Harold Garrison personally. Defendants oppose this request because it would waste judicial resources and the resources of Mr. Garrison to resume preparing now for a trial that might not occur.

If the Court decides to set a contingent trial date, which Defendants believe is unnecessary, then Defendants respectfully submit that scheduling a trial for the day after the July 7 injunction hearing is unreasonable. Defendants request that if a trial is to be calendared at this time, that it be set for a date that allows for a reasonable amount of preparation time after any decision by the Bankruptcy Court.

Respectfully,

Francis J. Earley
